VINEYARD LOOP
45 MINS | 3.5KM
EASY
This trail starts by meandering through the grasslands (an ALUS project) and follows their ridges next to working Long Point Bay and Turkey Point Marsh and. Rolls on the trail across the road to the woods behind the winery. then come out at Burning Kiln Winery. You'll then cross over to the St Williams Conservation Reserve forest, where a variety of Carolinian species can be found. There are some hilly sections in this part of the forest. This trail is a great beginner hiker trail, as most of the hiker is on flat ground.
RIDGE LOOP
35 MINS | 2.9KM
MODERATE
Head into the Carolinian forest and enjoy the scenery and ridges on this challenging, hilly trail. Watch the forest around you change as you go from rigid to low lying areas and back again. Enjoy a great view from the ridge that looks over the Western half of the trail. This is a more advanced trail with many hills.
ASH ALLEY LOOP
20 MINS | 1.3KM
DIFFICULT
This is a short but demanding trail as it quickly descends over 100 feet down the ridge. It provides and excellent example of what happens when an invasive species enters a new ecosystem. The Emerald Ash Borer has killed off over 99 percent of the once majestic ash trees to the ground. It is exciting to see how quickly the forest is rejuvenating itself.
ACORUS BOARDWALK
10 MINS | 0.7KM
MODERATE
Take a short walk down the trail to the 400 foot boardwalk that overlooks over 14,000 acres of private marsh that is located within the Long Point World Biosphere. Get a super view of the Sandhill cranes and over 20 species of ducks that call the marsh home. CACKLE LINE™ song of American Bitterns and marvel at the majestic beauty of Bald Eagles as they soar overhead. Be one with nature.
MABEE CABIN LOOP
30 MINS | 2.4KM
EASY
This is a great 30 minute trail as you can enjoy the views of the Turkey Point Marsh. Long Point Bay as well enjoy a quiet stroll through the Burning Kiln Vineyard.
Listen for the legato of wood peckers - Downy, Hairy, Red-bellied, Northern Flicker and possibly the giant Pileated woodpecker that sometimes visits this trail.
ADDON TRAILS
PINE PATH LOOP
30 MINS | 2.5KM
MODERATE
Don't feel like going back just yet? Add this trail to your hike at the mid-way mark of the Ridge Trail. This trail continues to challenge you with more hills, but the amazing forest scenery will keep you motivated to the end. You'll return to the same point on the Ridge Trail to continue your hike back.
DEFINITE MABEE LOOP
16 MINS | 1.4KM
EASY
The Definite Mabee Loop is a great trail short addition to your walk if you want to experience Carolinian Canada first at it's finest. This trail meanders through 40 acres of forest along the George and Shirley Pond Nature Preserve.
Listen for Chestnut-sided, Yellow and Hooded warblers and watch for Wild Turkey and White tailed deer.
